SECTION
FILE No. 2-10-13
No. 1

K.R. Srinivasiengar, Esq., M.A.,
Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
General and Revenue Departments.

Sir,

In submitting herewith in original docket No. 363, dated the 12th January 1914, received from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, forwarding the records connected with the arrears of R. 156-4-0 due by one Raja Bahadur Mudaliar lessee of Nanjangud Opium shop for 1912-13, I have the honor to intimate that Raja Bahadur Mudaliar, contractor of Opium shop of Bangalore City, during the year 1911-12, purchased the Nanjangud Opium shop for R. 37-12-0 per month for the year 1912-13. He paid an initial deposit of R. 57-12-0. As the purchaser of the shop was not a local resident and did not possess any property in Mysore Province, the Amildar recommended a security deposit of four months' khist to be recovered from him.

2. On receipt of the usual confirmation notice, Raja Bahadur Mudaliar did not pay the required deposit amount and so the shop was resold on the 24th June 1912. Before the confirmation of the resal the original purchaser of the shop presented himself before the Amildar and paid the required deposit. The Amildar submitted a report to the Deputy Commissioner who cancelled the resale and directed him to issue the license to the original purchaser.

3. The contractor paid the khist for July 1912 and became a defaulter in August 1912. As per rules the Amildar advertised the shop for resale and it was purchased by one Narayanswamy for R. 12/ a month. The new licensee began to work the shop from the 1st

1st October 1912

4 At the close of the offi[illegible]dal year the defaulter had to pay R$ 307-4-0 as detailed in the margin. The security deposit of R$ 151/- was adjusted towards the arrears. There yet remains a balance of R$156/4/-

Rhist for August and September 1912 at R$ 37-12-0 a month. ...	75- 8-0
Loss by resale at R$ 25-12-0 a month for nine months.	231-12-0
Total.	R$ 307- 4-0

5. The Deputy Commissioner states that "the bid of R$ 37-12-0 offered by the defaulter on the Opium shop by far exceeded the average rental realised on the shop for the previous five years" and intimates that the defaulter is a native of Vellore and possesses no property in the Mysore Province. He therefore recommend the remission of the arrears

6. Under the circumstances represented above, I request that orders of Government may be kindly obtained for the amount of R$ 156-4-0 being written off the accounts.

7. The file of records together with the remission statements in duplicate is herewith submitted for reference.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

P. Raghavendrayya
